VISION

We are created with the capacity to seek and to find God. Spirituality is the totality of our responses to this perceived call of God. Spirituality is integrated into the whole complexity of human life.

PURPOSE

- To increase knowledge of theology, history and literature of the mystics
- To nurture one's own faith and to aid in the process of spiritual formation
- To enter into an active discernment process of the call to spiritual companionship or the ministry of spiritual direction.
- To follow the lead of the Spiritual Mentors - saints, mystics and spiritual teachers of the Christian Tradition - and the invitation of the Dominican Family over the centuries, to receive and soak in the Word of God allowing God the Holy Spirit to bring forth fruits so that all, everyone and everything, is drawn to God through the Holy Preaching.

FOUNDATIONS OF SPIRITUALITY PROGRAM DETAILS

Foundations is a serious reflective study of the saints and great spiritual teachers of the Christian tradition, the practice of contemplative prayer and the writing of and living of a personal Rule of Life. Foundations may be taken on its own and not as part of the entire three-phase program. Presenters are local, regional and national professional ministers chosen not only for their academic background but because they live the spirituality they teach.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY IN SPIRITUAL DIRECTION DEGREE

Dominican Center is a P.R.I.M.E. (Partnering Resources in Ministry Education) relationship with the Graduate Theological Foundation in South Bend, Indiana. All work taken in the Spiritual Formation Program at DCM will earn credit towards Foundation D.Min. degrees in spirituality, spiritual direction, and pastoral care.

DESIGNED FOR

Some preparation programs train people for work or ministry by giving them the skills and practices to manage the external realities.

Dominican Center at Marywood's Spiritual Formation Program prepares people with skills and contemplative practices for tending the inner journey.

*... transformation of the person

The program will especially benefit people for whom spiritual guidance or spiritual friendship and companionship are auxiliary or new to their ministry: ministers, pastors, pastoral ministers, pastoral care chaplains, mental health workers, campus ministers, nursing and medical professionals, religious education directors, parish visitation volunteers, and R.C.I.A. team members, many of whom have received ministry training but wish to deepen and grow in their interior freedom and oneness with God.

PLEASE NOTE:

Foundations is required to continue the Practicum and/ or Companionship. (Some exceptions are made where there is an adequate foundational background - M.A. in Spirituality or Theology.)

PREPARING SPIRITUAL COMPANIONS

This program consists of one or two additional years of twelve sessions each year. Sessions consist of peer group, spiritual friends conversation, systems theory and worldview exploration as they impact personal and social transformation.

Spiritual companions are not trained spiritual directors. Companions listen to one another and affirm one another's experiences in daily life. Neither lays claim in any given moment to greater knowledge of wisdom than the other (even though one might have it). They pray together and share faith. Spiritual companionship arises out of one's baptismal/faith commitment. This pastoral program is for persons in all walks of life who desire to hone their ability to companion others on the journey. One need not be in a professional ministry to participate. There are written papers/projects and assigned readings.
