

The ILLUMINARE Retreat

Sunday, June 13 -- Thursday, June 17 2010

I can hear the voice of God calling my name.

Say my name, Lord.

Say my name.

What do you want me to do?

What do you want me to say?

How do you want me to be?

You called me by name.

I can hear the presence of God calling me by name.

I am listening. I am praying.

I am willing

if you call me by name.

The ILLUMINARE Retreat is a five-day experience of sustained prayer and reflection for lay and ordained ministers on vocation, the call to ministry and the gifts and challenges of a faithful response to one's vocation.

Retreatants will reflect on vocation from the perspective of their pastoral experiences illuminated by prayer and reflection on Scripture and the wisdom of spiritual writers.

The ILLUMINARE Retreat invites participants to a deeper understanding of the presence of God in the lived response to one's vocational call and to discernment about future directions for one's life, especially in light of personal growth and development and the reality of change in pastoral settings and the Church.

The Retreat includes individual and communal prayer and reflection; silence, conversation and discernment.
